Pricing Plans

These pricing plans are available to PGE's large non-residential customers.

Oregon's electricity restructuring law, and the associated choices connected with the wholesale marketplace, provide more options for you to assume potential market risks in exchange for potential benefits.

Update: The quarterly election window is from 8 a.m. Aug. 15 through 5 p.m. Aug. 17 to leave PGE's Annual Cost of Service rate, effective Oct. 1, 2011.

To determine if you are eligible, read our Q&A. See a list of all 2011 election windows (XLS).

Types of Pricing Plans

- > Annual Cost of Service
- > Alternate pricing plans
 - > Daily pricing
 - > Direct Access service (choosing an Electricity Service Supplier)

Prices

- > 2011 Annual Cost of Service and Schedule 128 Transition Adjustment prices
- > Historical pricing archives
- > Historical pricing graphs

Retail Tariff

A directory of PGE's tariff approved by the Oregon Public Utility Commission is available. Tariff documents include rate schedules, rules and regulations, tariff update announcements and price summaries.

The dates listed here are for example only. They are not necessarily the same dates you may see on the current enrollment screens.

Enrollment Forms

Quarterly Open Enrollment

Fill out this form between 8 a.m. Aug. 15 and 5 p.m. Aug. 17 to leave PGE's Cost of Service pricing, effective Oct. 1, 2011.

Bill Estimator

PGE's Bill Estimator is designed for customers who want to get a better idea of how PGE's Annual Cost of Service pricing compares with rates you are given by an ESS.

Renewable Power

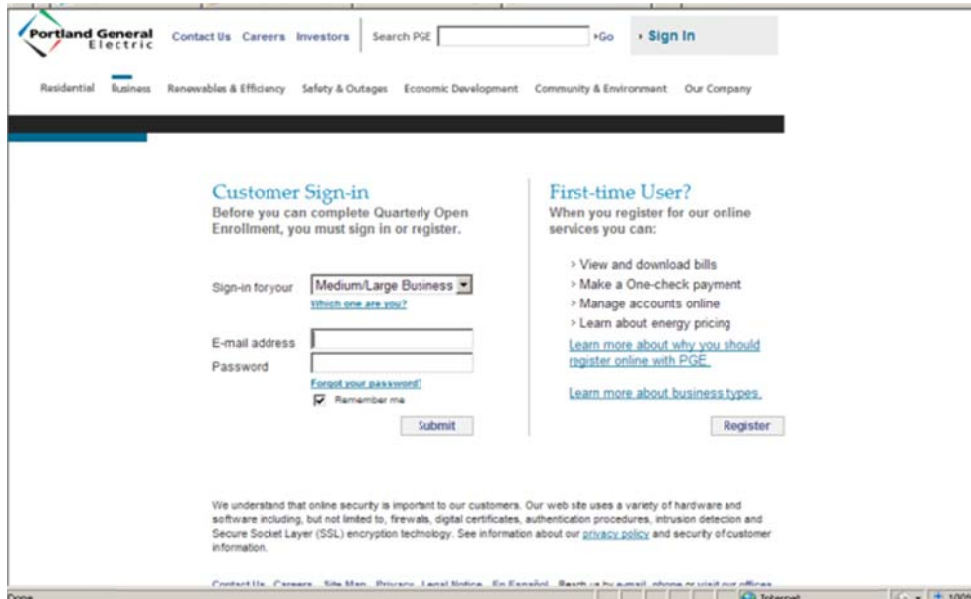

Schedule 83, 85, 89 and other large non-residential customers also can choose to purchase Clean WindSM renewable power. No matter which pricing plan you are on — even Direct Access — you can buy Clean Wind to help keep Oregon clean.
